Thai-Yoga Bodywork

Nuad Borarn (Thai-Yoga Massage) is viewed as a martial art of healing and is reported to manifest instant positive results. It is the cultural result of several ethnic forces including China, Tibet and India. Sri Dhanvantari, an incarnation of Lord Vishnu's medical grace (pictured on the front), is accepted as its first essential influence.

In Thailand, Bodywork is utilized medicinally as a cherished and revered indulgence to remedy the prominent social ailments such as emotional stress and physical inertia. Thai-Yoga sessions inspire the soul and tranquilize the body.

Customarily, a Thai-Yoga Massage lasts about 2 hours, during which there is a surrendering release which allows deeper and deeper physical and mental 'openings'. Flowing rhythmic compressions using the feet, knees, palms, elbows, forearms and fingers are blended with exotic stretching positions known as asanas and disciplined breath control known as pranayama, effectively producing a balanced and harmonious symbiotic communication integrating the body's vital systems, including mechanical-musculoskeletal, electrical-neural, chemical-glandular.

Frequently, a person expresses feelings of purified consciousness, invigorated spirit, and profound rest. Consistently and remarkably, this therapy produces results which parallel in sophistication outcomes produced by other medical protocols including psychiatry and surgery.

About Michael Buck

Mukti (Michael Buck) is celebrated as an accomplished instructor's instructor in the art of Thai-Yoga Bodywork. His 2007 induction into The World Massage Hall of Fame praised him for his career of unconditional loving service to humanity, bhakti yoga, as demonstrated through more than 14 years of continuous traveling and teaching. Mukti has shared his gifts at the best yoga centers, massage schools and health resorts nationally and abroad, teaching over 1000 hours each year in a different city each weekend. Mukti has issued initiating certificates to nearly fifteen thousand pupils in 7 countries. He has also documented over 13,000 private sessions.

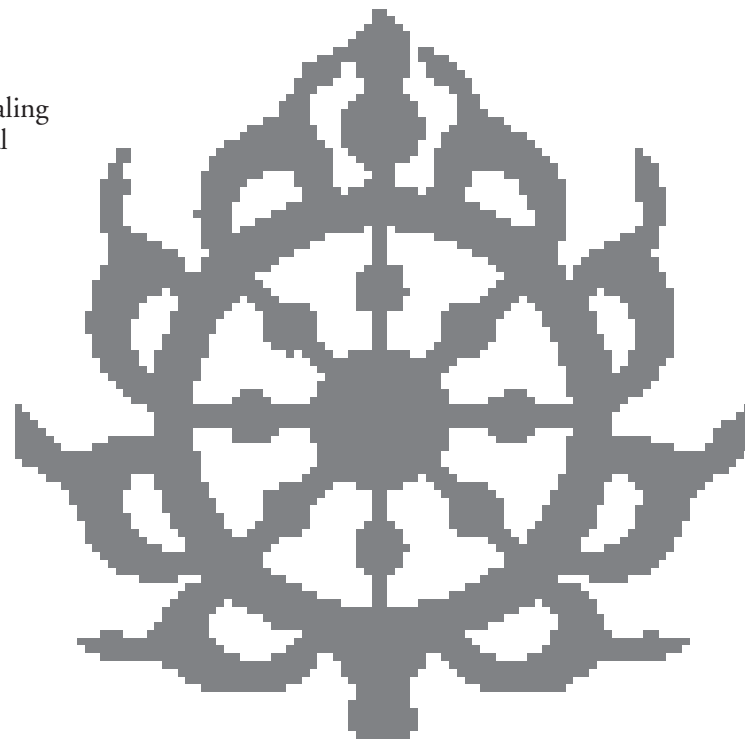

Mukti's educational DVD's are a delight amongst his students and have received top-selling status and popular acclaim nationally. Mukti's new 7 DVD set is the most thorough Thai-Yoga resource available for home learning and continuing education.

Mukti is a graduate of The Swedish Institute in 1984, The Ohashi Institute in 1985, and The Anma Institute in 1987, where he was awarded instructor certification. In 1995 he received level three instructor status from The International Thai Therapy Association (I.T.T.A.). Mukti is also a Continuing Education Provider with T.H.A.I. and NCBTMB.

Each year between 1996 and 2000, Mukti sponsored month-long student learning tours to Thailand to authenticate ancient Siamese culture and Thai Massage experience. In Thailand, he received over 200 hours of formal training from the notable schools ITM and Lek Chaya. He also documented receiving over 60 massage sessions in Thailand, Bali and India from the indigenous peoples representing city and rural styles.

Mukti's most prized credential is as a Vaisnava monastic from 1976-1980, including full ashram sadhana (live-in and study vows) fundamental to the Vedic culture's yogic values. Mukti traveled incessantly as a yogic monk, opening meditation centers and joyfully sharing lessons from the great Vedic classics with thousands of people.

The Vedic Conservatory Bodywork courses are replete with Mukti's continuing devotional service to The Supreme Lordess and Lord, and are routinely infused with the teachings of the illustrious and auspicious Vedic culture. Mukti is also well-known as a dedicated percussionist and rhythmist, regularly accompanying kirtan trance dances since the early 1970's. He is also a registered and certified Rebirthing Breathing Therapist and Tratak meditation personal coach.

Testimonials

For the past 5 years I have struggled to make teaching Yoga my job. It has put considerable hardship on my family -- not to mention putting my son's college education at risk. With the added dimension of Thai Yoga Body Work to my repertoire, that goal now appears to be within reach. Many blessings to you for sharing your gifts and knowledge with us.
Yogajohn Colvin 11/4/2006

I want to thank you for a wonderful weekend. I have gotten several positive emails regarding the training. The training was excellent. You are certainly a great teacher and it was a very inspirational experience for me and Dawn. We'd love to have you back.
Bill Raup, Director of Power Yoga Works 4/26/2006

Thanks for making a difference, thanks for touching a life. The Thai-Yoga Bodywork workshop was amazing! It was the very best training I have ever attended! Your wisdom, experience, kindness, and humor made the weekend complete! The universe is so fortunate to have such a wonderful educator, teacher and friend. Thank you again from the bottom of my heart.
Julie Schuette 2/26/2006

You show me the person I want to be. You burn through my layers of ego and armor with your beautiful, loving eyes and infinitely generous spirit. You call upon our authentic Self and ask us to rise to our highest potential. In your loving eyes, we recognize our deepest wisdom, highest truth and grandest love.
Renata Ranjani, 6/20/2008

You have been a Great Influence in my life. I love you. You are a true transmitter of the ancient healing arts. I'm forever grateful.
Mark Byrd 3/7/2007

In the Bible, the disciples were amazed at Jesus and immediately believed and followed him because he "spoke with authority, not as our teachers of the law" I had always thought I understood that passage, rationally, as a description of the language and style of his speaking, but I was wrong. This week you spoke with "authority" and I understand it now to mean speaking with your entire being. As the disciples were amazed, so was I. I had complete novices flipping me into positions that I was sure just last week would have had me seeking the services of an orthopaedic surgeon. Wow. Such powerful stuff.

It was such a pleasure taking your course. I have been to so many teaching seminars over the years it isn't funny. You are a true Master in the way you present the class and directed it. I have not felt so many blocks move on this body at one time, and following such a short weekend it was quite an amazing experience. I can not thank you enough. I found it amazing that untrained students that you were teaching were getting immediate results under your instruction. (Fantastic). It is my intent to do more work with you....You have answered many of my questions in this weekend and I humbly bow to you and your chain of Masters for such a pure teaching. Thank you.
Kevin B. Eikov, Jai Guru Dev!

Since taking the course I immediately started practicing on friends and have become so comfortable with this bodywork that I have been offering it to my massage therapy clients, and they absolutely love it! Not that this should come as a shock. But I think more surprising to me is how much I love it. I just can't explain how after giving this gift to my client how full and rejuvenated that I myself feel. Each session is so special and I learn so much with each one. Nothing compares!
